

RESEARCH PROPOSAL GUIDELINE

The contents of Research Proposal are as follows:

- Title of the research
- Problem identification / Background to the research
- Review of the previous studies related to the title
- Objectives of the research
- Methodology
- Expected significant contribution to new knowledge / expected benefits to the country / society / organizations
- Citation and list of references
- Schedule for the research

Your research proposal have to be written in English should have the following components and it must be typed on A4 size paper and double space. The whole proposal should not exceed 10 pages.

Attach the proposed research with your application form and send to the respective faculty.